	An election proposal may be withdrawn as long as no decision has been made on its approval. After the decision on the approval of an election proposal, any amendment is excluded. Any amendment or withdrawal requires concurring declarations by the representatives.
	These declarations must be submitted in writing to the competent electoral administration (municipal or district electoral administration) and cannot be revoked.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Any amendment or withdrawal requires concurring declarations by the representatives. If no second representative has been designated in the case of individual applications, only the declaration of the individual applicant is required.
