Hinweise

- If you are working as a freelancer with a residence permit in accordance with Section 21 (5) of the Residence Act, you can only be granted a permanent residence permit after 5 years. Other requirements then also apply.
- The procedure is usually carried out in German.
- A settlement permit may expire if you spend more than six months outside Germany if this stay abroad was not previously agreed with the Foreigners' Registration Office.
- All information provided to the Foreigners' Registration Office should be correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief so that your application can be processed without major delays.
- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be detrimental to the person concerned. In serious cases, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in good time vis-à-vis the immigration authority can result in the revocation of previously granted residence rights, a fine, a prison sentence of up to three years or expulsion from the federal territory.
- Due to the complexity of residence law, this description is for information purposes only and is not legally binding.

Rechtsbehelf

- Appeal against the decision of the immigration authority within one month of notification
- Legal action before the court named in the objection notice if the objection is not upheld
