the children. The maximum possible working hours are

- for theater performances for children over 6 years of age: in the period from 10:00 to 23:00 up to 4 hours a day
- for music performances and other performances, advertising events and recordings on radio and television, on audio and video media and for filming and photography: for children over 3 years of age up to 2 hours a day in the period from 8:00 to 17:00 for children over 6 years up to 3 hours a day in the time from 8.00 a.m. to 10.00 p.m.

Rehearsals count as working time and are included in the period of employment. As a rule, you will receive the permit for a maximum of 30 days per calendar year and child. If the child is also employed at other locations, all working days are added together. After employment, you must grant the child a period of 14 hours off until the next employment. Attendance at school before the end of this period is not affected by this restriction. You are responsible for ensuring that the necessary measures are taken to protect the child against risks to life and health and to prevent detrimental physical and mental development before the start of employment. You are also responsible for the care and supervision of the child, even if you assign this task to a supervisor who must be carefully selected, appointed, instructed and monitored by you.

You will not receive a permit for shows and performances by children:

- in cabarets
- in dance halls and similar establishments
- in amusement parks
- at funfairs
- at funfairs and similar events

You can apply to the trade supervisory authority responsible for you or to the Office for Occupational Health and Safety. The permit is limited in time and can be revoked at any time. The supervisory authority determines how long, at what time and on what day the child may be employed. The duration and location
