Teaser	Have you discovered explosive ordnance or are you not sure whether your find is ammunition? Please inform the police immediately by calling 110 or the local regulatory authority.
Volltext	Even today, there is a high risk of being injured or even killed if munitions or explosive ordnance are found. The longer they lie in the ground, the more dangerous the ammunition can become. Found munitions are not always recognizable as such at first glance. The size and shape of a munition also do not indicate the danger it may still pose. In order to protect yourself and others, please inform the police immediately by calling 110 or the relevant public order office whenever you find explosive ordnance. It is important for the police to know <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • WHO are you? • WHAT have you possibly found? • Perhaps you have taken a photo with your cell phone and can send it to the police? • WHEN did you find the ammunition? • WHERE / WHEN did you discover the explosive ordnance and WHERE can you meet the police to show them the object? Follow the further instructions of the police or the local regulatory authority.
