Teaser	Do you want to operate a plant that does not require a permit and uses solvents and exceed the threshold values in Annex I of the 31st BImSchV for the first time? Then you must notify the responsible immission control authority in advance.
Volltext	If you operate an installation that does not require a permit and uses solvents and exceeds the threshold values in Annex I of the 31st BImSchV for the first time, you must notify the responsible immission control authority in advance. The obligation to notify applies to all installations not requiring a permit that are already in operation. The solvent consumption must exceed the threshold values according to Annex I of the 31st BImSchV for the first time. The activity according to Annex II of the 31st BImSchV is decisive for the threshold value.
