Teaser	Anyone wishing to guard the lives or property of third parties on a commercial basis requires a permit from the competent authority.
Volltext	Commercial guarding requires a permit. Guarding within the meaning of Section 34a of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (GewO) refers to activities aimed at protecting the lives or property of third parties from interference by third parties. The specific activities covered by the term "guarding" are wide-ranging. These include, among others <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • conventional bicycle, vehicle and building security, • the event service, • air passenger control, • the transportation of money and valuables, • personal protection or • the guarding of industrial and military facilities and nuclear power plants. Guarding requires an active custodial activity (e.g. supervision or checks). The guarding must consist of human activity. A guarding contractor can be a natural or legal person. In the case of partnerships (e.g. OHG, KG), the trader is any managing partner. In the case of legal entities (e.g.

The personal licensing requirements (reliability, proof of successful completion of an expert examination) must be fulfilled by the trader or the legal representatives of a legal entity.

The following security activities require the successful completion of an expert examination:

- Patrols in public traffic areas or in domestic areas with actual public traffic;
- Protection against shoplifters;
- Guarding the entrance area of nightclubs;
- Guarding reception facilities in accordance with Section 44 of the Asylum Act, shared accommodation in accordance with Section 53 of the Asylum Act or other properties and facilities that are used for the official accommodation of asylum seekers or refugees, including temporary accommodation, in a managerial capacity;
- Guarding large events with protected access in a managerial capacity.

Kosten

Verwaltungsgebühr: 103€ - 1.300€

Verfahrensablauf

You must apply for the permit from the responsible office.

In the case of legal entities (limited liability companies, business companies, public limited companies, registered cooperatives), you only need to complete the application form for the legal entity itself. You must submit all personal documents for all natural persons authorized to manage the business (e.g. identity card). For the legal entity, you also need an excerpt from the central trade register.

Partnerships (GbR, KG, OHG, PartG, GmbH & Co. KG) are not eligible for a license as such. Therefore, each managing partner requires a permit. You must submit a completed application form and all personal
