Hinweise

The broadcasting contribution replaced the broadcasting fee on January 1, 2013.

- As long as you have not yet received confirmation of the granting of a social benefit, it is not necessary to apply. It is sufficient if you send the application for exemption from the obligation to pay broadcasting fees with the required proof as soon as you have received the approval of the social benefit.
- The exemption from the obligation to pay broadcasting fees ends prematurely if the conditions for exemption are not or no longer met. You must notify the responsible state broadcasting organization or the contribution service of ARD, ZDF and Deutschlandradio of this without delay.

Rechtsbehelf

You can lodge an objection to the decision within one month of notification. The objection must be submitted by you in writing, in electronic form or in writing to the address of the state broadcasting organization acting on your behalf or to the ARD, ZDF and Deutschlandradio contribution service.

Please also note the following important information:

- When filing your objection, please state the facts and evidence used to substantiate it.
- An objection or complaint does not release you from your obligation to pay the broadcasting fees.
