Voraussetzungen

The craft in question, which is subject to licensing and does not require a branch office in Germany, may be practiced temporarily and occasionally if you are

- are a national of a member state of the EU, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland,
- do not have a commercial establishment in Germany, but have a legal establishment in a comparable profession in another member state of the EU, the EEA or Switzerland,
- wish to provide services in Germany on a temporary and occasional basis.

Modul
Sachverhalt

• If the other country of origin does not require a specific professional qualification for the training of the relevant activity and if you do not have any regulated training for these activities, the provision of services in Germany is only permissible if the activities in the other country of origin were actually and lawfully pursued as full employment for at least one year or as corresponding part-time employment and no longer than ten years ago.

In the crafts of chimney sweep, optician, hearing aid acoustician, orthopedic technician, orthopedic shoemaker and dental technician, the activity may only be taken up after notification by the Chamber of Crafts that no subsequent examination of the professional qualification has taken place or that a sufficient professional qualification has been established. In the other crafts listed in Annex A, the activity may be commenced immediately after notification and proof of the required documents (Section 8 (1) EU/EEA Crafts Ordinance).

Kosten
Verfahrensablauf
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist

Insofar as further provision of services in Germany is intended, the notification must be repeated informally on an annual basis.
