Handlungsgrundlage	The equalization supplement is regulated in many legal sources in EU, federal and state law and can be found in the application documents.
Teaser	If you farm at least 3 ha in a less-favored area or specific area, you can apply for a compensatory allowance for less-favored and/or specific areas. However, you must achieve a minimum funding amount of EUR 300.00 per measure.
Volltext	The compensatory allowance is a subsidy for agricultural enterprises that farm land in less-favored or specific areas or in parts of NATURA 2000 areas. It compensates for the loss of income and additional costs incurred by the companies through the agricultural use of these areas in order to counteract the economic disadvantages compared to land managers outside these three areas and to ensure the preservation of these areas for both agriculture and biodiversity. Approval is granted on the basis of the size of the area.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The PORTIA portal will inform you about the required application documents, which must be submitted online.
Voraussetzungen	A formal geospatial application must be submitted online via the PORTIA portal.
Kosten	There are no fees.
