Teaser	If you are married, you may be able to arrange your name by declaration before a German registry office even after you have married abroad.
Volltext	Spouses can arrange their own name. Under certain circumstances, this also applies if the marriage was contracted abroad and therefore no domestic marriage or marriage registration exists. To this end, the spouses can submit a corresponding declaration to a German registry office after the marriage. The registry office of the place of residence must check and confirm the validity of the declaration. For spouses with a German personal statute, the following name declarations can be considered: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marriage name determination (also after marriage). • Adoption of a companion name (prefix or addition) For spouses with a foreign personal statute, other possibilities for name declaration may come into consideration under certain circumstances. Please contact the registry office of your place of residence in advance.
