Teaser	As a party or voter group, do you need information from the population register? You have the option of applying to the registration office for group information from the population register.
Volltext	In the 6 months prior to an election in connection with parliamentary and municipal elections, parties, electoral groups and other sponsors of election proposals may obtain the following information on persons entitled to vote from the civil register by way of group information: • First and last names, • degree of doctorate, • current address. If the person inquired about is deceased, this will be communicated. The age must be decisive for the composition of the group, i.e. only data of eligible voters of individual age groups are transmitted. Group information can only be provided for election canvassing purposes. Group information to parties and voter groups for other purposes is not permitted.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Documentation may be required. Please contact the responsible office.
