Teaser	If it subsequently transpires that the heirs shown on the certificate of inheritance are not the real heirs, the certificate of inheritance may be revoked.
Volltext	If the probate court learns that the heirs listed in the certificate of inheritance are not the real heirs of the deceased, it must revoke the certificate of inheritance ex officio. The certificate of inheritance thus becomes invalid and you, as the presumed heirs listed in this incorrect certificate of inheritance, can no longer jointly dispose of the estate. The confiscation of the certificate of inheritance can also be initiated by the real heir at court.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The procedure is carried out ex officio by the probate court. Should you request such proceedings, the following documents are helpful: • Your identity card or passport, • the death certificate of the deceased person (testator), • the family register to document the relationship, • Information on whether there is a lawsuit regarding your inheritance rights, • names and addresses of co-heirs, • evidence of the reasons why certain persons who would actually inherit are no longer heirs, for example, their death certificates, declarations of heirship or waivers of heirship, • if applicable, wills or inheritance contracts, • the marital property status (in the case of married couples) or the asset status (in the case of registered civil partnerships).
