Teaser	Do you want or need to terminate your studies? Then you can apply for de-registration at your university.
Volltext	Students can apply for de-registration at their own request. After exmatriculation, you are no longer enrolled at the university. Exmatriculation takes effect at the time requested or at the end of the semester. Retroactive exmatriculation upon application is usually only possible in the same semester. After exmatriculation has taken place, a pension and exmatriculation certificate will be issued. You will need this certificate, among other things, for the pension insurance, the BAföG office, the child benefit office or for enrollment at another university. At the same time, the certificate serves as proof of the respective period of study at the university. Exmatriculation also takes place ex officio, for example, if the current semester fee or fees due have not been paid or requirements have not been fulfilled and there has also been no response to a notice of default. If you have completed your studies or have definitively failed examinations, you will also be exmatriculated ex officio if you have not applied for exmatriculation yourself.
