Teaser	If you have already reported the cross-border provision of skilled trade services subject to licensing for the first time, you must notify us before the end of the year if you wish to continue providing these services in the following year without any significant changes.
Volltext	As a tradesperson from the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland, you must notify us if you wish to provide services in Germany that require a license on a temporary and occasional basis. After the initial notification, you must inform the relevant Chamber of Skilled Crafts before 12 months have elapsed if you also wish to provide cross-border services in Germany in the following year. If you provide the skilled crafts services over several years, you must notify the Chamber of Skilled Crafts every 12 months at the latest. You must submit the notification to the Chamber of Skilled Crafts that was responsible for the initial notification. As a rule, this is
