Sachverhalt

The exemption from the licensing requirement (license exemption) can be granted to a natural person and a legal entity. Partnerships such as the civil law partnership (GbR), the general partnership (OHG) or the limited partnership (KG) cannot be granted the exemption from the licensing requirement (license exemption). Here, each managing partner must apply for a separate exemption from the license requirement.

In addition to obtaining the exemption from the licensing requirement, you must be entered in the register of intermediaries immediately after commencing your activity.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Proof that you carry out your activity directly on behalf of one or more self-employed insurance intermediaries with a license or one or more insurance companies
- Declaration from the insurance company or independent intermediary about your personal reliability, your qualifications and your orderly financial circumstances
- Proof of professional indemnity insurance or an equivalent guarantee
- Extract from the commercial register for legal entities and commercial partnerships

Please note: You can find out which documents are required in your specific case on the application form from the competent authority.
