Teaser	If young people of compulsory school age are not attending school due to problems, but still want to make progress and obtain a school-leaving certificate, they can be supported.
Volltext	Funding is provided for projects in Thuringia that look after young people who are at a distance from school or have multiple problems. The young people in the projects are supported to catch up on an external secondary school leaving certificate and/or to learn practical skills for integration into employment. Support for the young people's individual problems plays a major role here.
