Teaser	If you have a foreign driver's license for motor vehicles, you can have it rewritten for Germany.
Volltext	If you have a foreign driving license for motor vehicles, you can have it rewritten for Germany. Under which conditions the foreign driving license is rewritten depends on whether it is a driving license of the EU/EEA states or of a third country. Holders of driving licenses legally issued outside the EU/EEA may continue to use them for a period of 6 months after establishing normal residence in Germany. To apply for the transfer, you must appear in person at the driver's license office.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Photo ID (ID card or passport (if passport is presented, also a current registration certificate from the registration office responsible for the main place of residence)). • photograph, 45 x 35 mm in portrait format and without border (so-called biometric passport photograph) - frontal photograph, without head covering and without covering of the eyes • foreign driver's license, if necessary with official translation • Proof that the foreign driver's license is valid All other application documents depend on the driving license class to be converted and on the state which issued the driving license. For more detailed information, please contact your local driver's license office.
