Voraussetzungen

Requirements: Driving instructor is a state-recognized, nationally standardized designation for a service profession in the transport sector. To practice this profession, you need a driving instructor's license. The requirements for this are regulated by the Driving Instructor Act. Training and examinations are carried out in accordance with a nationwide training and examination regulation based on this law. The driving instructor license is issued if the applicant

- is at least 21 years old
- is mentally, physically and professionally suitable and there are no facts that make him/her appear unreliable for the driving instructor profession
- has at least completed vocational training in a recognized apprenticeship or equivalent previous training
- the applicant is in possession of the driving license for the category for which the driving instructor license is to be issued,
- the applicant has been trained as a driving instructor in accordance with Section 7 of the Driving Instructors Act within the last three years before the driving instructor license is issued
- the applicant has passed an examination in accordance with Section 8 of the Driving Instructors Act and

Verfahrensablauf	Training to become a driving instructor can only take place in one of the approx. 56 recognized driving instructor training centers nationwide. Not only is theoretical training required, but also practical training in a driving school. The training is a "graduated training". In the basic level, the driving instructor license for category BE is acquired first. A two-stage application procedure is required for this. Based on this, driving instructor licenses for categories A, CE and DE can be acquired. Applicants for a category BE driving instructor license (driving instructor candidates) are granted a candidate license for the purpose of further training and testing in accordance with Sections 7 and 8 of the Driving Instructors Act, insofar as this extends to the theoretical and practical driving lessons, if the practical driving test and the professional knowledge test have each been passed successfully. The candidate license expires either when the unlimited driving instructor license is issued or after three unsuccessful driving tests in theoretical or practical driving lessons or after 2 years from the date of issue.
