Teaser	Exceptions to the requirements and prohibitions of the Road Traffic Regulations are possible upon request.
Volltext	It is not always possible to comply with the rules and prohibitions of the Road Traffic Regulations for a smooth flow of traffic. In this respect, an exception can be granted in individual cases after application. This concerns, for example, exceptions • from the regulations concerning the use of roads, • from the prohibition to enter a highway or a motor road or to use it with vehicles not authorized there, • from the regulations on stopping and parking, • the regulations concerning the dimensions of vehicles and loads, • from the regulations concerning the use of safety belts and the wearing of safety helmets, • the prohibition of driving on Sundays and public holidays • the prohibition of placing obstacles on the road, • from the prohibitions of operating loudspeakers, offering goods or services on the road, • from the prohibition of advertising and propaganda in connection with traffic signs, • prohibitions or restrictions imposed by regulatory or directional signs, as well as • the prohibition of parking at night or on Sundays and holidays for vehicles over 7.5 t and trailers over 2 t in residential areas.
