- for music performances and other performances, advertising events and recordings on radio and television, on audio and video media and for filming and photography: for children over 3 years of age up to 2 hours a day in the period from 8:00 to 17:00 for children over 6 years up to 3 hours a day in the time from 8.00 a.m. to 10.00 p.m.

Rehearsals count as working hours and are included in the period of employment. As a rule, you will receive the permit for a maximum of 30 days per calendar year and child. If the child is also employed at other locations, all working days are added together. After employment, you must grant the child 14 hours off until the next employment. You are responsible for ensuring that the necessary measures are taken to protect the child against risks to life and health and to prevent detrimental physical and mental development before the start of employment. You are also responsible for the care and supervision of the child, even if you assign this task to a supervisor who must be carefully selected, appointed, instructed and monitored by you.

You will not receive a permit for shows and performances by children:

- in cabarets
- in dance halls and similar establishments
- in amusement parks
- at funfairs
- at funfairs and similar events

The application must be submitted to the Thuringian State Office for Consumer Protection (TLV) responsible for you. The permit is limited in time and can be revoked at any time. The supervisory authority determines how long, at what time and on what day the child may be employed. The duration and location of rest breaks and the maximum duration of daily employment are also determined. If you employ children without an official permit, you are liable to prosecution.
