Teaser	You must apply to the competent authority for a green license plate for certain vehicles exempt from vehicle tax.
Volltext	Certain vehicles exempt from motor vehicle tax in accordance with the German Motor Vehicle Tax Act (KraftStG) have license plates with green lettering and a green border on a white background. These include, for example • Vehicles belonging to certain non-profit organizations, • agricultural and forestry vehicles and • certain trailers - exceptions to this are listed in the Vehicle Registration Ordinance (FZV). The green license plate remains on the vehicle until it is taken out of service or re-registered in another registration district or until the owner changes. If the requirements for a green license plate are not met, the main customs office may impose a vehicle tax. From this point on, the green license plate must be changed to black at the registration authority.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• completed application for tax relief with the necessary supporting documents (corresponding applications can be obtained from the main customs office or at www.zoll.de) The documents must be supplemented with further evidence in individual cases (especially because of the tax exemption sought). weiterführende Informationen
Hinweise

License plates are issued by the responsible registration authority. The seal gives them the character of a document. This means that they may not be altered in any way - e.g. by folding or applying stickers or foils.

Green license plates must be firmly attached to the vehicle; they may not be mirrored, covered or soiled.
