If a permit for excessive road use or a special permit is required under the provisions of the StVO, no special use permit is required (Section 41 (7) LStrG). Before making its decision, the authority responsible for this will instead consult the authority otherwise responsible for the special use permit. The special use permit thus becomes part of the road traffic permit.

- Written confirmation from the organizer that the organizer is aware that the event constitutes a special use within the meaning of the Federal Trunk Roads Act or the corresponding provisions in the road laws of the federal states. In particular, the declaration must confirm knowledge of the reimbursement claims under road law, according to which the licensee must reimburse all costs incurred by the road authorities as a result of the special use. - Organizer's declaration
- Confirmation from the insurance company for submission to the StVB regarding liability insurance cover for an event
