Teaser	Have you migrated to Germany and are between 12 and 27 years old? Do you need support with your professional, educational or social integration? Then the Service Office for Youth Migration Services can help you with your individual questions.
Volltext	As a youth social work service, the main task of the youth migration services is to advise and support young people with a migration background during the transition to school, training or work. All employees of the service are trained accordingly and are guided by the integration support plan. They respond to the individual needs of each enquirer and support them with regard to their professional and educational future as well as their social integration. Those seeking advice should contact the JMD advice centers directly.
