Teaser
Volltext	The commencement of a prostitution activity is only permitted if this activity has been registered. The validity of the registration certificate is limited in time. For persons under the age of 21 who are required to register, the registration certificate is valid for one year; for persons over the age of 21 who are required to register, it is valid for two years. Continuation of the prostitution activity is then only permitted if you extend the registration period.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Proof of health consultation (maximum 3 months old)
Voraussetzungen	Continuation of the activity as a prostitute after the expiry of the validity of an existing registration certificate.
Kosten	The basis for charging fees to the authorities is the relevant Fees Ordinance. Additional costs may be incurred for language mediation if the consultation cannot be conducted in German.
Verfahrensablauf	Personal presentation and registration at the responsible authority. This is followed by a personal consultation. If the necessary requirements are met,

Hinweise	On request, a pseudonymized registration certificate (so-called alias name) can also be issued. The registration certificate (optionally the alias certificate) must be carried when working as a prostitute. Persons from countries outside the EU must also regularly submit proof of authorization to work as an employee or self-employed person ("work permit"). In many cases, the consultation can also be conducted in your native language. You can also bring a language mediator with you.
Rechtsbehelf	Objection and complaint.
Kurztext	Admission to prostitution is only permitted after registration. The registration certificate is limited in time and must be extended if it is still valid.
Ansprechpunkt	In principle, the city or municipal administration of the place that is to be the focus of the prostitute's activities is responsible. In individual cases, the district or another city or municipal administration may be responsible.
Zuständige Stelle	The administrations of the independent cities or districts in which the activity is to be carried out.
Formulare	On site at the responsible authorities.
