Teaser	You have completed your certificate of secondary school leaving certificate and would like to start an assistant training in a field of your choice? Perhaps you would like to qualify twice and acquire the Fachhochschulreife at the same time?
Volltext	Within two years, the higher vocational school provides full-time, qualified vocational training, which leads to a qualification as a state-certified assistant. In addition, there is the possibility, in conjunction with an additional internship, to achieve the Fachhochschulreife and thus to qualify twice. You can choose from the following disciplines (your future job title in brackets): • Nutrition and supply: (State-certified assistant for nutrition and supply) • Gastronomy: (State-certified gastronomic assistant) • Information Technology: (State-certified information technology assistant) • Laboratory equipment: a) Focus on biology (state-certified biological-technical assistant) b) Focus on chemistry (state-certified chemical-technical assistant) c) Focus on environmental protection (state-certified environmental protection assistant) • Mechatronics (state-certified automation assistant) • Media Design (State-certified design assistant) • Apparel Technology and Fashion Design
