Teaser	For pupils with special educational needs, the type and degree of disability must be taken into account regardless of the type of school attended. In addition, accompanying persons are to be used on the school bus if this is necessary according to the type and degree of disability.
Volltext	The districts and independent cities are responsible for school transport. In principle, all pupils are entitled to school transport if they are resident in Rhineland-Palatinate and cannot reasonably be expected to travel to school without using a means of transport. Regardless of the type of school attended, the type and degree of disability must also be taken into account when determining the reasonableness of the journey
