Sachverhalt

not only theoretical, but also practical knowledge.
Therefore, extensive preparation is recommended.

If you have applied for a permit to trade in ammunition, the treatment of the common ammunition and its use in the associated firearm will be examined.

As a master gunsmith registered in the register of craftsmen, you already have the expertise and do not have to prove it again by taking an examination at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- If applicable, notification from the authority responsible for the trading licence that the examination is to be carried out
- Government-issued photo ID for identification during the exam

Voraussetzungen

- As a rule, the authority to which you have applied for the arms trade permit must register or pre-register you for the examination

Kosten

You can find out the fees from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK), where you take the exam. They result from the fee schedule of the competent state authority.

Verfahrensablauf

Normally, you apply for permission to trade in arms and are then reported for examination via the relevant licensing authority. At some chambers of commerce and industry, you can or must register yourself.

- As a rule, you will receive a notification from the authority responsible for the trading licence that the examination is to take place
- Your registration will be confirmed by the Chamber of Industry and Commerce and you will receive an invitation to the exam date
- You take the exam on site at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce
- You will receive the certificate of successful completion of the specialist examination by the Chamber of Industry and Commerce
