Teaser	Extension of a residence permit due to a ban on deportation.
Volltext	Your residence permit has been issued for at least one year. It can be extended if the ban on deportation and the other conditions for granting the goods are met. You must urgently ensure that, before the expiry of your residence permit, you submit an application for an extension or issue of another residence permit (for example, a settlement permit). If the application is submitted in good time, i.e. before the expiry of the time limit, the further stay is considered permitted until the decision of the immigration authority with all subsequent effects (e.B. the right to exercise gainful employment). A late application (after the end of the time limit specified in the residence permit) can result in considerable legal disadvantages.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Request for extension • current biometric passport photo • previous residence permit

	Further documents depend on the facts and can be requested from your contact person.
Voraussetzungen	• The residence permit shall be renewed if the conditions which must be met at the time of first issue are still met. • Existence of an application for extension • There must be no grounds for refusal • A revocation of the determination of the deportation bans by the Federal Office is not available.
Kosten	Fee for renewal of the residence permit: 93 euros For minors: 46,50 Euro Exemption from fees for receipt of social benefits
Verfahrensablauf	As a rule, you must apply for the extension of your residence permit personally - at an early stage before the expiry of the validity of your residence permit - at your competent immigration authority. Arrange an appointment with the local immigration authority. You can also inform yourself on the respective website of the Immigration Office about the procedure of the application and which documents you have to submit in which form. If your application is granted, the Immigration Office instructs the Bundesdruckerei to produce the electronic residence title (eAT) with a new validity date. With regard to the duration of the procedure until the residence permit is handed over, please contact the competent immigration authority.
Bearbeitungsdauer	As a rule, when applying for an extension, you will be informed by the competent immigration authority of the duration of the procedure (about 6 to 8 weeks). Note: The residence permit is issued as an electronic residence permit.
Frist	Apply for the extension of your residence permit at your competent immigration office in good time before expiry of the validity period. Inquire about this at your responsible immigration office.
