Teaser	If you have previously worked as a lawyer in another country within the European Union (EU), in a state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) or in Switzerland, you can apply for admission as a European lawyer.
Volltext	If you are admitted as a European lawyer, you may work in Germany under the professional title that you are allowed to use in your country of origin. Without admission as a European lawyer, this is not permitted in Germany. Even if you are admitted, you may not and will not be entitled to use the title 'European lawyer'. If you are admitted as a European lawyer, you must prove regularly, usually every three years, that you are still admitted to the bar in your country of origin. Otherwise, your recognition as a European lawyer in Germany will be withdrawn. If there are other reasons why you are no longer allowed to practise as a lawyer, you are obliged to inform the competent bar association of these
