Teaser	If the holder of a mining permit dies, the right to the permit is transferred to the heirs.
Volltext	A mining permit, also known as an exploration permit, allows you to explore for certain raw materials in a specified area and for a specified period of time. If the holder of a mining permit dies, it is transferred to the heirs. Up to 10 years after the death, the right may also be exercised by the so-called beneficiaries. These are • Administrators of the estate • estate administrators • executors of the will. In both cases, you as the heir or person entitled to dispose of the estate must apply to the competent authority for a transfer of the license.
