- Proof of regular participation in further training and subject-related exchange of experience, e.g. certificates, diplomas, certificates of attendance

Voraussetzungen

- You must meet the following criteria: There are no known facts that make you appear unreliable to act as an expert. You are mentally and physically suitable for the intended expert activity. Under certain circumstances, the competent authority will conduct an examination or an expert discussion with suitable experts to verify your statements in this regard. You are professionally competent, i.e: You have passed a professionally relevant final examination recognized in the European Union or the European Economic Area at a university, technical university, technical college or technical school, or You have acquired comparable above-average specialist knowledge in another way, in particular through relevant vocational training recognized as equivalent, and You have the special technical qualification for the specific activities to be carried out, including knowledge of the relevant technical rules and the relevant legal regulations, as a rule demonstrated by at least five years of practical experience in the relevant specialist field. Under certain circumstances, the competent authority may carry out an examination or a technical discussion with suitable experts in order to verify your statements in this regard. You have the necessary facilities and, where appropriate, suitably qualified and experienced staff. You must ensure that you and your employees work impartially and independently and comply with the obligations for recognized experts.
- If you are in an employment or service relationship, you must also prove that your contract of employment complies with the above requirements and that you are able to carry out your expert activities personally, you are not bound by any instructions in your expert activities and can sign your work results yourself and your place of work releases you to the extent necessary for your expert activities.
- You must have liability insurance for your expert activities. The amount and scope of the liability insurance must correspond to the risks of your expert activity. If the liability insurance only partially covers the risks, additional security may be required to cover
