ensure that operations run smoothly.

Responsible persons are supervisors who have been appointed to manage or supervise the operation or part of the operation. Responsible persons ensure, for example, the health and safety of employees or monitor the disposal of mining waste. If no responsible persons are appointed, you as the employer are directly responsible.

If you appoint responsible persons in your company, you must notify the competent mining authority. You must precisely describe the tasks and powers of the responsible persons, and their powers must correspond to their tasks and abilities.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Description of the respective tasks and powers of the responsible persons
- Proof of reliability, expertise and physical aptitude, for example: Certificate of good conduct for submission to authorities Proof of professional qualification Proof of health suitability (if required, for example underground)

Verfahrensablauf

You can nominate responsible persons online via the "BergPass" platform or in writing to your competent mountain authority.

Submit a nomination online:

- Go to the "BergPass" online platform and log in. You will need a BundID and an identity card or residence permit with an active online ID function for the nomination.
- Upload the required documents as a file.

Submit the nomination in writing:

- Contact your competent mining authority.
- Submit all required documents there.

Further procedural steps:

- You will receive a confirmation of receipt.
- The competent authority will receive your nomination and check the documents submitted. If any documents are missing, they will contact you.

Note: In exceptional cases, you can also submit your nomination verbally, but it must then be confirmed in writing as soon as possible. This is the case, for example, if there is a risk to the life or health of employees or third parties or if there is a risk to significant material assets.
