Teaser	If your driver's license has been stolen, defaced or destroyed, you must have a new driver's license issued.
Volltext	If your driving license has been lost or destroyed, for example due to theft, illegibility or loss, you will need a new driving license unless you waive your right to drive. If you do not report the loss of your driving license immediately and apply for a replacement document, you are committing an administrative offence. If your name has changed, you do not have to have a new driving license issued. However, it may be useful to be in possession of an EU driving license with up-to-date information, especially when driving abroad. If you wish to change the name on your driving license, you will be issued with a new card driving license upon request.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	In case of damage • old driver's license • identity card or passport • Current biometric passport photo In case of loss or theft • Identity card or passport • current biometric passport photo • additionally in case of theft: police report confirmation • at the request of the competent authority in the event of loss: affidavit on the whereabouts of the driver's license
