Foreign nationals can acquire German citizenship on application under certain conditions. As a rule, the following requirements must be met

- five years of legal residence in Germany
- unlimited right of residence or a permanent residence permit
- clarified identity and nationality
- commitment to the free democratic basic order of the Basic Law for the Federal Republic of Germany and to Germany's special historical responsibility for the National Socialist reign of injustice and its consequences, in particular for the protection of Jewish life as well as for the peaceful coexistence of peoples and the prohibition of waging a war of aggression
- no conviction for a criminal offense
- independent means of subsistence (also for dependent family members) without social assistance and unemployment benefit II. Exceptions apply to persons who have been in full-time employment for at least 20 months in the past 2 years.
- Sufficient knowledge of German
- Knowledge of the legal and social order and living conditions in Germany (civic knowledge)
- No polygamous marriages and no evidence of disregard for equal rights for men and women
