Teaser	Persons without health insurance who only receive short-term subsistence assistance may be entitled to health benefits.
Volltext	Health care benefits as part of social assistance can be granted in the event of economic need and if other personal and health requirements are met. Depending on the need for assistance, the following benefits may be considered: • Preventive health assistance, • Assistance in the event of illness, • Assistance with family planning, • Assistance with pregnancy and maternity, • Assistance with sterilization. Health assistance is subordinate to possible claims for benefits from other social service providers, in particular statutory health insurance benefits and contractual cover under private health insurance. Comprehensive and case-specific advice is provided by the employees of the responsible social welfare provider (social welfare office).
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Informal application for the issue of a treatment certificate • Current notification of benefits to secure your livelihood • Identity card or passport • Prescriptions and/or proof of payment, if applicable, • necessary consultation confirmations, cost estimates, rejection notices
Voraussetzungen	• Exclusion of priority benefits (e.g. health insurance, accident insurance, care for victims of war, Asylum Seekers Benefits Act)
