Beginning of church tax liability Membership of a Protestant regional church or the Roman Catholic Church is established by the act of baptism. The obligation to pay church tax begins on the first day of the month following the start of membership and the establishment of residence in Rhineland-Palatinate.

Termination of church tax liability The obligation to pay church tax is terminated by death, moving abroad or leaving the church. If you wish to leave the church, you must declare this to the registry office.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Identity card or passport with last registration certificate

Voraussetzungen

Kosten

No fee is charged for joining the church/religious community.

The fee for withdrawal is 30.00 euros in accordance with the state ordinance on fees for official acts under the state law on withdrawal from religious communities.

Verfahrensablauf

For employees who are subject to church tax, the employer withholds church tax in addition to wage tax and pays this to the tax office. The church tax on capital gains is collected by the bank in addition to the capital gains tax. The withholding of church capital gains tax can be avoided by submitting a blocking notice to the Federal Central Tax Office, in which case this church tax is assessed by the tax office.

Membership of a tax-collecting religious community is stored in the registration data and automatically taken into account in the electronic wage tax deduction features (for tax deduction from wages) and the electronic church tax deduction features (for tax deduction from capital gains).
