Teaser	Would you like to receive an appointment as an authorized district chimney sweep? To do this, you must be appointed by the competent authority.
Volltext	An authorised district chimney sweep (bBSF) is anyone who has been appointed by the competent authority for a sweeping district. According to the Chimney Sweep Crafts Act (SchfHwG) of 26.11.2008 (amended by Art. 1 G. v. 17.07.2017), sweeping districts that have become vacant or become vacant are occupied by way of a tendering procedure. The selection procedure and the appointment to the bBSF are based in principle on §§ 9, 9a and 10 SchfHwG. Accordingly, the respective competent authority must publicly advertise free sweeping districts and make the selection between the applicants according to their suitability, competence and professional performance. The appointment is limited to seven years. The advertised sweeping districts are published on the website of the competent authority or on the federal administration portal. https://www.service.bund.de/Content/DE/Home/home_page_node.html  https://www.service.bund.de/Content/DE/Home/home_page_node.html
