Teaser	If you do not wish to accept an inheritance, you must declare the renunciation of the inheritance to a notary, have it notarized and submit it to the probate court.
Volltext	If you have become an heir, you must decide whether to accept or reject the inheritance. This applies regardless of whether you inherit on the basis of intestate succession, a will or an inheritance contract. First find out what assets and debts are available. If you do not wish to accept the inheritance, you must expressly declare the waiver. It is not sufficient to submit a written declaration. You can declare the waiver of the inheritance to a notary, have it notarized and submit it to the probate court. If the inheritance has been effectively disclaimed, the disclaiming party is treated as if the inheritance had never been received.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	 Identity card or passport with registration certificate It is not mandatory to submit the death certificate. If no death certificate is available, you must state the full name (with maiden name), the date of death and the last habitual residence of the deceased person. Indicate minor children as co-heirs. The approval of the family court may be required (information on this can be obtained from the probate court). You must submit the application to the family court responsible for the child's habitual residence. Proof of approval must be submitted to the probate court within the deadline. If a guardian declares the waiver, the approval of the guardianship court is required. Proof of approval must be provided within the deadline for waiver.
Voraussetzungen	You are an heir and would like to waive an inheritance.

Hinweise	Minors For underage children, only the legal representative can waive the inheritance. The legal representative is the person who has custody of the child. If both parents have custody of the child, they can only waive the inheritance for their child jointly. Waiver inadmissible after acceptance of the inheritance In principle, the inheritance can no longer be waived once the heir has accepted the inheritance. In other words, he/she has shown by his/her conduct that he/she accepts his/her position as successor to the deceased. If the heir did not know that the estate was overindebted, he/she may be able to contest the acceptance of the inheritance. The contestation is subject to a time and form limit (6 weeks, declaration to the probate court or the notary). The effective contestation removes the legal consequences of the previous waiver or acceptance. Due to the complicated legal issues involved, it is often advisable to seek legal advice in good time.
