Volltext	Women insured under the statutory health insurance scheme are entitled to midwife assistance during pregnancy, during and after childbirth, in addition to the right to medical care. Midwifery assistance comprises the services provided during pregnancy and childbirth by a state-certified and accredited midwife or maternity nurse. The provision of services is regulated by the midwife assistance contract. Midwifery assistance includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maternity care and antenatal care services,</li> <li>• obstetrics,</li> <li>• services during the puerperium up to 12 weeks after birth and</li> <li>• other services, such as counselling for the mother in the event of breastfeeding difficulties or regression gymnastics with instruction in a group.</li> </ul> Midwifery assistance can be claimed during pregnancy and up to 12 weeks after delivery (exception: counselling of the mother in case of breastfeeding difficulties or feeding problems of the infant). Midwifery assistance is provided to insured persons as a benefit in kind, i.e. midwives bill the health insurance funds directly. Only services that are regulated in the midwives' remuneration schedule can be billed.
