Teaser	Do you want to open an animal shelter? Do you want to keep and/or care for animals in an animal shelter, boarding kennel or similar facility? Then you will need a permit before you can start your business. You can apply for this permit from your local veterinary authority.
Volltext	If you wish to keep animals in an animal shelter, boarding kennel or similar facility, you must apply for a permit from your competent veterinary authority before starting the activity. The competent authority will decide whether to issue the permit within four months of receiving the application. This period may be extended by up to two months depending on the scope and difficulty of the examination of the conditions for granting the permit. You should therefore allow sufficient time for the permit to be issued before commencing your activity. You may only commence your activity once you have received the permit.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Please ask the competent veterinary authority for application forms for a permit and which documents must also be submitted • Informal application for a permit with the following content: Type, expected number and sex of the animals to be kept or description of the intended animal husbandry Details of the person responsible for the activity • Certificates of competence of the persons responsible for handling the animals • Certificate of good conduct • Sketch(es) of the husbandry facility(ies)
