Teaser	If you live abroad and have several citizenships, you can submit a declaration of renunciation of German citizenship under certain conditions.
Volltext	The Federal Office of Administration (BVA) is a German higher federal authority within the portfolio of the Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community (BMI). Among other things, it is the citizenship authority for persons abroad and is responsible for citizenship issues. If you live abroad, have several citizenships and wish to renounce your German citizenship, you can submit a declaration of renunciation of German citizenship. If the renunciation can be approved, you will be issued with a certificate of renunciation. Permission will not be granted if you belong to the following professional groups, among others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • active civil servants, • judges, • soldiers, unless you have been living abroad permanently for at least 10 years. If you are a minor, you can only renounce your German citizenship with the approval of the German family court responsible for you (at the local court). The approval of the family court is not required if the custodial parents or the parent with sole custody declare or declare the renunciation for themselves and at the same time for the minor child.

You can also appoint an authorized person, for example a lawyer, to make your declaration. You must submit a power of attorney for this.

You can obtain further information by telephone, e-mail or in a personal meeting from the German diplomatic mission or consular post responsible for you or from the Federal Office of Administration (BVA).

Notes:

A distinction must be made between renunciation and the release from German citizenship. You can renounce your German citizenship if you wish to acquire a foreign citizenship and must first renounce your German citizenship.

You can declare your renunciation of German citizenship in writing to the competent German representation abroad, online or in writing directly to the Federal Office of Administration (BVA).

Erforderliche Unterlagen

For the declaration of renunciation you must submit

- possible proof of German citizenship:
 - German identity card
 - German passport
 - (last) certificate of citizenship.
- Possible proof of possession of the other nationality and permanent residence:
 - foreign identity card
 - foreign passport
 - (foreign) certificate of citizenship
 - foreign registration confirmation
- for minors:
 - Approval of the German family court

Notes:

Unless otherwise stated, please enclose the documents and evidence as officially or notarized copies. For the online application, you first need simple

German diplomatic mission abroad or download it online from the BVA website.

- If you live in Germany, please contact your local city or district administration. They will provide you with the appropriate application forms.
- If you wish, the local diplomatic mission abroad can help you fill out the form.
- Complete the form in full and sign it.
- Submit the signed declaration by post or in person together with the required supporting documents to your local German diplomatic mission abroad.
- However, it is not compulsory to contact the diplomatic mission abroad. You can also send the declaration directly to the BVA by post.
- The BVA will check your declaration and inform you if further documents and information are required to process the declaration.

Online application

- Go to the website of the federal portal and fill in the application form for renunciation of German citizenship electronically. Note: You will need your ID card with PIN number for the online function.
- Attach the other required documents as a file.
- Submit your application.
- The BVA will check your application and request any necessary documents as certified copies.

Complete the procedure (in writing and online):

- If your application is approved, the BVA will send your waiver certificate to your responsible German diplomatic mission abroad. They will inform you about the further procedure for handing over the certificate.
- You will lose your German citizenship when the renunciation certificate is issued. Your German identity documents will then become invalid. They will be confiscated by the diplomatic mission abroad.
- If the BVA rejects your application, you will receive a notice of rejection.
