Kurztext

- Residence permit for the purpose of employment Extension for researchers who are recognised as refugees or similar in another EU state.
 - Residence permits for the purpose of research for persons entitled to international protection can be extended if their period of validity is due to expire in the near future and they intend to continue working at the research institution.
 - The extension must be applied for at least eight weeks before the expiry of the time limit.
 - A residence permit may only be extended for the purpose of research if the prerequisites that existed when it was first issued continue to be met.
 - In the course of the extension, the residence permit is again limited in time.
- If the obligation to attend an integration course was stated when the residence permit was issued, proof must be provided that the obligation has been fulfilled. If the integration course has not yet been completed, the Aliens' Registration Office can refuse to extend the residence permit or can only extend it for one year until the course has been successfully completed or proof has been provided that integration into social life has taken place in some other way.
 - An extension is excluded if this was already ruled out by the foreigners authority when the permit was issued or the last extension was granted.
 - Depending on the Foreigners' Registration Office and the issue, the application can be made via the Internet or only in person.
 - There are fees for the extension. The time as well as the form of payment varies depending on the authority
 - Responsible: Responsible: the foreigners authority responsible for the applicant's place of residence.
