Teaser	Does your child have problems in everyday life or in his or her development? As a parent, you can't help your child on your own? Then a guardian can support your child.
Volltext	An educational assistant or a care assistant can help a child or adolescent in everyday life, in dealing with their parents and with social problems. Possible aids are: • Conversations about problems, fears and behavior, • Help in coming to terms with stressful experiences, • Assist in problem-solving with family, friends, teachers or others, • Assistance with administrative procedures. • In the case of older young people, there is also other help: support in finding work and housing, • help in detachment from parents, • Help to become independent. Note: In contrast to "socio-pedagogical family assistance", an educational assistant concentrates his or her help largely on the child or young person concerned. If possible, it involves the social environment.

Erforderliche Unterlagen
Voraussetzungen	• You are the person with custody of a child (parent or guardian) • Not all of them can guarantee that the child will be well • The help of an educational assistant or care assistant is suitable and necessary (this is checked by the Youth Welfare Office).
Kosten	In the case of outpatient educational assistance, there are no costs for the applicant. The costs are covered by the Youth Welfare Office.
Verfahrensablauf	• Please contact the responsible Youth Welfare Office. • In a personal conversation, you will be shown possible help. This can be, for example, a parenting assistant or a care assistant for your child. • If this assistance is eligible, then submit an application for educational assistance. • Everyone involved (you, your child. Educational assistants/care assistants and the Youth Welfare Office) meet for a help plan discussion. The aid plan specifies how the aid is to be structured and what objectives are to be achieved. As a rule, the Youth Welfare Office commissions an independent welfare agency. This is where the educational assistant or the care assistant is employed.
