Teaser	You should apply for the extension of your residence permit in good time before the expiry of your residence permit for the purpose of looking for a training place for qualified vocational training.
Volltext	If you have not yet reached the age of 25 and would like to complete qualified vocational training in Germany, but have still not found a training place, you can obtain an extension of your residence permit for the purpose of seeking training if you meet certain requirements.

Sachverhalt

Make sure that the residence permit is issued for a maximum of six months. An extension of your residence permit is only possible if this 6-month period has not yet been exhausted. The extension must be applied for in good time before the end of the validity of your previous residence permit.

If you have already been in possession of a six-month residence permit, the residence permit can only be issued again if you have stayed abroad after your departure for at least as long as you have previously stayed in Germany to look for training.

The residence permit will again be issued for a limited period of time, but for a maximum period of six months.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

In principle, the extension of your residence permit requires the submission of the same documents as for the initial issuance:

- Recognised and valid identity document (e.g. passport or passport substitute)
 - Recent biometric photo in passport format (45 x 35 mm)
- Proof of securing your livelihood (e.g. from your own assets, payment of a security deposit into a blocked account, bank guarantee, declaration of commitment, scholarship, donations from third parties)
 - Proof of health insurance coverage (for example, confirmation of health insurance coverage or insurance policy).
 - Proof of active search for a training place.
 - In the case of minors: consent of all persons with custody to the planned stay (declaration of consent); if the custodial parents are unable to submit the application jointly on behalf of their child, a written power of attorney from the absent parent is required; if only one parent has custody, the signature of that parent is sufficient
- Proof of German language proficiency at level B2 (e.g. language certificate)
- Proof of school-leaving certificate that entitles you to university admission.
- Proof of departure and the duration of the stay abroad

The documents and information must always be submitted in German. In individual cases, the Foreigners' Registration Office may require less or more proof.

Voraussetzungen

In principle, the same requirements must be met for the renewal of the residence permit as when the residence permit was first issued. That is:

- You are still looking for a training place for the purpose of carrying out qualified vocational training (vocational training in a state-recognised or comparably regulated training occupation for which a training period of at least two years is specified).
 - This total period of validity of your residence permit of six months has not yet been exhausted.
- Alternatively, you have stayed abroad after your departure for at least as long as you were previously in Germany on the basis of the residence permit.
- You have not yet reached the age of 25 at the time of application.
 - You have a good knowledge of German at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
 - You have one of the following school leaving certificates:
 - Graduation from a German school abroad: The degree obtained at a German school abroad must be a secondary school leaving certificate (e.g. lower secondary school leaving certificate, secondary school leaving certificate, entitlement to transfer to the upper secondary school, advanced technical college entrance examination, university entrance qualification examination or foreign school leaving certificate that entitles the student to study in Germany or, in any case, to study in the country in which the German school abroad is located).
 - School leaving certificate that entitles you to access higher education in the Federal Republic of Germany: This can be a German school leaving certificate obtained in Germany or a foreign school leaving certificate. It is crucial that the school-leaving certificate entitles the holder to access higher education (university and university of applied sciences) in Germany.

- School leaving certificate entitling the holder to enter higher education in the country in which the school-leaving certificate was obtained: this is to be determined using the anabin database. If the degree is listed in the anabin database, there is no need for a formal examination of the certificate. Only if the degree is not listed in the anabin database can it be examined in individual cases by means of an individual examination by the responsible certificate recognition offices of the federal states.
- You can secure your livelihood and health insurance coverage from your own resources without recourse to public benefits.
- There is no interest in expulsion against you.
