Volltext	The deregistration of an apartment is only necessary if you move out of this apartment without moving into a new apartment in Germany. This is the case, for example, if they move abroad or give up one of several apartments. Please also note the information in the service for deregistering a secondary residence.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Confirmation of landlord • Registration form • Identity card
Voraussetzungen
Kosten	There are no fees.
Verfahrensablauf	If you change your place of residence, you only have to register the new apartment. The competent authority of the new place of residence then automatically informs the departure municipality. If you do not move, but only dissolve one of several apartments, you can deregister this apartment either at the local authority or at the office responsible for your current residence.
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist	The cancellation must take place no later than 2 weeks after moving out.

Formulare	The competent authority will provide you with the registration form free of charge. The registration form can be downloaded from many municipal websites. Sometimes it is possible to register online directly via the Internet if the competent body provides a corresponding online notification form with secure electronic transmission of the data. However, this message must be signed by you with a qualified electronic signature. For this purpose, a corresponding signature card is required. This is available via teleservice providers, banks and savings banks.
