Issuing a certificate of no impediment to marriage

To enter into a marriage abroad, German citizens may require a certificate of no impediment to marriage.

A certificate of no impediment to marriage is an official certificate confirming that there are no impediments to marriage under German law to a marriage abroad between two persons, at least one of whom is also a German citizen, i.e. in particular that there is no lack of capacity to marry or no prohibition of marriage.

You can also apply for a German certificate of no impediment to marriage if you are a stateless person, a homeless foreigner or a foreign refugee within the meaning of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with habitual residence in Germany and you require the certificate of no impediment to marriage in order to marry abroad.
