Teaser	Under certain conditions, you can apply for an exemption from the obligation to wear a seatbelt and helmet.
Volltext	In order to protect road users, the legislator has stipulated that seat belts must be worn while driving and that safety helmets must be worn when driving motorcycles. However, it is possible to be exempted from this obligation on request. The resulting considerable safety risk is borne by the applicant. Exemption from the obligation to wear a seat belt is possible, • if it is not possible to wear seat belts for health reasons. • if the height of the applicant is less than 150 cm. Exemption from the obligation to wear a helmet is possible, • if it is not possible to wear a safety helmet for health reasons.
