Volltext	The coat of arms and the heraldic animal of Lower Saxony may only be used as national emblems by the offices of the state. Use by third parties is prohibited. Unauthorized use of the coat of arms or heraldic animal constitutes an administrative offense. The competent authority decides on the use of the national coat of arms on a case-by-case basis. Associations, clubs, companies and private individuals who want to express their solidarity with the state of Lower Saxony - especially in the social, cultural and economic areas - can use the "Lower Saxony logo" free of charge. It is conceived as a figurative word mark and consists of a white horse running in a red oval with the word "Niedersachsen" standing to the right. The sign is protected by trademark law.
