pending against you.

- For residence in Germany:

- Certificate of good conduct of document type "O"

In Germany, this must be applied for at the registration office of the place of residence, stating the purpose "Approbation as a veterinarian". The certificate of good conduct will be sent directly to the competent authority by the Federal Office of Justice.

- If you live abroad:

- Documents from your home country that prove your personal reliability.

(Extracts from criminal records from all countries in which you have resided for more than 6 months in the last 5 years.

The criminal record extracts must not be older than 3 months when the application is received.

Certified copies of these extracts must be submitted).

- Curriculum vitae with the focus of your previous professional activity
  - The original or an officially certified copy of certificates (e.g. diplomas) relating to the veterinary examination or
    - proof of training from the relevant EU/EEA country or Switzerland or
    - Proof of training and certificate of equivalence from the competent authority of the respective country
    - Proof of sufficient knowledge of the German language

The MSGIV may request further documents to verify personal reliability.

Further evidence (e.g. proof of employment) may also be required. Please contact the MSGIV directly.

**Please note:** Foreign-language documents must be accompanied by a German translation. The translation must be carried out by an officially sworn document interpreter.
