Teaser	Are you studying at a university or planning to do so? Do you have excellent school and university grades and are you committed to your studies? Then you could be selected for the Deutschlandstipendium.
Volltext	Students of all nationalities can apply for a Deutschlandstipendium. The scholarship is intended in particular for talented and high-achieving applicants, but also for students in advanced semesters. In addition to academic achievements, social and societal commitment as well as special personal achievements are also taken into account. The scholarship is paid independently of other benefits, such as BAföG or parental income. In contrast to other benefits, the scholarship does not have to be repaid. Scholarship holders are supported with a monthly contribution of EUR 300.00. The scholarship is financed in equal parts by funds from the federal government and private sponsors, particularly from industry. The aim is to establish a new scholarship and funding culture in Germany.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Check with the respective university in advance.
Voraussetzungen	• Enrollment or registration certificate • You have an outstanding educational record and are particularly socially committed. • Among other things, the following will be taken into account: • Your grades from your university entrance qualification or achievements already made in your studies. • Your involvement in clubs, politics or church.
